

Charity Events:

IEEM will ensure appropriate arrangements for any non-profit organization keeping in mind budgetary constraints while preserving the integrity of the charitable organization. Depending on the type of event desired, we can act as a liaison for sponsors, negotiate and scout suitable locations and set-up and coordinate the event. IEEM also involves charities in our various trade events and seminars that are mutually beneficial for both the charitable organization and our F & B clients.

